

20th Annual Family Day in Annapolis

Thursday, February 27, 2020

Save the Date!

Bringing together legislators, families, youth, policymakers and providers

Join us on Thursday, February 27 for Family Day in Annapolis to advocate for children, youth, and adults with behavioral health needs. More details coming soon.

Don't miss this opportunity to:

- Make your voice heard about the need for more behavioral health services
- Learn about relevant legislation and committee work in Maryland's House and Senate
- Meet with your legislators and/or their staff

MCF will:

- Organize free buses, carpools and vanpools that depart from various locations around the state.
- Identify your legislators and organize the visits.
- Provide you with talking points and information about the bills.
